WEDNESDAY MAY 14

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce H. H. HENNINGER, Wayne County, a candidate for the office of State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

EDITORIALS.

The death of Admiral Sampson removes one of the chief figures from the stage of action.

Judge Thomas H. Paynter has been re-nominated by the Democrats for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Sixth district.

Ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley and Mr. H. W. Batson have formed a partnership in the practice of law. The firm is located in Louisville.

Hon. W. P. Thorne, in a speech at New Castle, formerly announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

But one formal announcement has been made for Governor, but it is understood that Beckham, Black, Hendricks and Breckenridge will enter the contest.

Gen. Miles refused to be a pall bearer at Admiral Sampson's funeral. He offered no explanation. Miles claims that he was mistreated by Sampson at Santiago.

The House last Friday passed the bill providing for enabling acts whereby the Territories of Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico may enter the Union as States.

Alan-a-Dale, the colt that won the Kentucky Derby, pulled up lame after the race, and it is feared he has broken down completely. His owner valued him at $50,000.

Lee Turner of "Quarter House" fame, shot and killed his cousin, John Turner, near Middleboro last Saturday. They had been enemies for years, and meeting in a country road, John Turner opened fire with result as above stated. Lee Turner was immediately tried and acquitted.

Paul Leicester Ford, the novelist, and author of "Janice Meredith," was shot and killed by his insane brother, Malcolm, in New York last Wednesday. After firing the fatal shot Malcolm put a bullet through his own head. Both brothers were buried together. Malcolm became unbalanced on account of financial difficulties.

Ten thousand cattle were left on the Chicago markets because the packing-houses refused to buy them unless sold at less than current prices. The stockmen claim that the action was a direct result of the combination among the packers. If the Beef Trust intends to treat cattle-raisers in this manner there will be a reckoning which will make every one responsible for such a condition suffer.

Admiral Schley when told of the death of Admiral Sampson expressed regret and sympathy for his family. He said, "No one has ever heard me utter one unkind word about him." Under the provocation such self-control is remarkable but this is an additional evidence of his greatness. The real hero of Santiago—the Master Spirit of American Naval Warfare has suffered more indignities from the powers of his own country than any other great American. Calm and deliberate in the greatest modern naval battle, true and courageous when being deprived of the honors and emoluments of his victory. He is a great old man and shows that magnanimous spirit under any and all circumstances.

A volcanic eruption of Mt. Pelee, in the Island of Martinique, Thursday of last week, destroyed the city of St. Pierre, and the loss of life is placed at 40,000. A French cruiser, which was off the city at the time of the fearful catastrophe, managed to save about thirty lives. The downpour of lava reached the harbor, and every vessel save one was destroyed with all their crews. Eye-witnesses state that the volcano, which had been active for several days, seemed to burst its cap and a flood of steam, sand and molten rocks followed. Ashes fell on the Island of Barbadoes, one one hundred miles from St. Pierre, and on ships at sea. Incoming vessels report that the ocean was visibly affected and contrary currents ensued. No one up to last Saturday had been able to land at St. Pierre.

PALESTINE.

People are busy planting corn and watermelons.

W. C. Eads, of this place, was in Mansville last Sunday.

Miss Eva Richerson and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson are on the sick list.

Miss Lena Elkins, of this place, is living with her aunt, at Elkhorn, this year.

Mr. Walter Bowen, of Spurlington, met with a serious accident last Sunday afternoon while trying to head cattle, his horse falling and breaking his leg.

Rev. Smith Tandy's little son, died May 3, and was laid to rest at Pleasant Hill church.

Mr. Vance Oaks, about 22 years of age, who had been squirrel hunting, sat down in the door to examine his gun, and it was accidentally discharged, the load passing through his thigh. He bled rapidly and died in a few hours.

Rev. J. T. Hall filled his appointment here on Sunday.

Mr. Henry Gill has returned from Lion Station.

Mr. Delmer Wright, of Spurlington, has gone to Hartford City.

Mr. Geo. Hubbard has returned from Louisville.

W. L. Horten and wife were in Marion county last week.

KNOW LICK.

Cut-worms are getting in their work of devastation, and many farmers are having to plant their corn the second time.

Wheat is looking very well and will make an average yield.

Charlie Crenshaw sold to T. L. Terry, of Barren county, 15 stock hogs at 6 cents per pound, and bought of Willie Grider 1 yearling mule for $40. Dave Higginson bought of Sam Dilly 1 small cotton mule for $42.50.

E. G. McIntee bought of Ed Reynolds 1 combined horse for $70.

Geo. Stark bought of Willie Kinnaird one cow and calf for $25.

Mrs. J. M. Henseley died a few days ago after much suffering. She leaves a husband and five small children.

Mrs. Jonathan Read, who has been confined so long to her bed, is now thought to be dying—will probably not live six hours longer.

Judge Samuel Shannon celebrated his 92nd birthday on the 7th. He was born and reared in Adair county on the farm known as the Wyatt-Smith place. When about 18 years old he moved with his father to this place. Married early—a Miss Hughes, of Adair county, and became a very prominent man in the affairs of the county, and Cumberland Presbyterian church. He was elected county judge and served the people satisfactorily, taking especial care of the county's finances. He has many friends in Adair county who will be glad to know that he is reasonably well for his age.

By all means let us have a re-union of Adair's people. By that means we will be enabled to see many of our old schoolmates and friends of former years that otherwise we may never meet. Adair has sons and daughters scattered all over the United States who would like to meet friends of long ago. I believe such a meeting would be highly appreciated by those who have pitched their tents in other fields, and we would all feel better—and in fact be better from having met.

Born, to the of D. E. Edwards, on the 8th inst., a daughter.

Mrs. Mary Read, of Bowling Green, after a protracted visit to her father-in-law, has returned home.

I understand that our enterprising merchant, Mr. J. H. Lee, will probably engage in the culture of ginger, which seems to be a very profitable business in some localities.

ESTO.

Farmers are about through planting corn. There has been more than usual planted. Most of the farmers here have a surplus of corn and find but little demand for it.

RUSSELL & MURRELL.

FELIX.

Mrs. J. C. Eastham, of this place, who has been sick for some time with grip, is improving.

There are six boys of this place who are preparing to enter the examination for County certificates. The rooms are to be seen lighted almost the entire nights which indicates that they mean to succeed in the end.

There will be an all day singing here Sunday and there will be dinner on the ground. All are invited, their baskets loaded with good articles to eat.

Mr. Arthur Stanton and sister, Ermine, visited friends in Columbia and Gradyville last week.

L. C. Irvin, of Wesley, was here one day last week to give up his job as yard man for I. A. Wilson.

H. C. Wilson attended the singing at Pleasant Hill.

Mr. Oscar Popplewell, who has been stricken with nervous prostration, is no better.

J. A. Eastham, of the firm Eastham Bros. Esto, is at home looking after the interest of the firm.

EDITH.

Farmers are about through planting corn.

Mr. Chas. Jones sold his farm to Mr. Ed Rigney for $700.

Unknown parties entered I. C. Harmon's meat-house one night last week and took two choice sides of meat.

B. L. Royse sold four calves to Darnon and Bous for $50.

B. T. Evans was in Columbia one day last week.

Mrs. Dicie Evans, who has been on the sick list for some time, is much better.
